BIKEWAY REACHES DALBY CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

Students of the Dalby Christian School will soon have access to Council's network of safe bike and walkways with construction underway on a new leg of the route.

Council is currently working on the new bikeway from Condamine Street that will link the Dalby Christian School via Wyley and Mary Streets.

"This new section will provide safer access for children travelling to and from school and participating in sporting activities," said spokesperson for Civil Works Cr John Hart.

Council's Technical Supervisor Civil Works Cameron Davidson said the bikeway would be finished early in April. The total cost of the extension is $56K, of which Dalby Town Council sourced 50% funding from the Department of Main Roads.
